

October Education Adult Programme 2010

We are running the following exclusive workshops for our new adult programme;

South African Music workshop

Saturday 30th January. 10am – 12pm

Led by musician Philip Nangle

Nangle uses his own collection of South African instruments in a unique workshop that involves storytelling, art and lots of music. Participants will be involved in a range of activities: learn to make your own instrument, play music, and consider how music might inspire visual art.

Puppet Making workshop

2-Part Course

Tues 9th & Tues 16th February - 6:30 – 8:30

Led by artist Charles Foster-Hall

Participants will design and make articulated puppets to their own personalised designs and produce a puppet performance that balances intuitive creativity with reflective critical thinking. The workshop will take inspiration from the exhibition of Aubrey Williams, Now and Coming Time. His extraordinary collection of works on canvas explore accomplished figurative studies to explosive, vibrant abstracts.

Further information and booking your workshop

The workshops, which take place at October Gallery, are £8 each or £6 concession (pay on arrival). Places are limited – booking is essential.
